

Make the most of your midwife appointments

Write down a list of questions you want to ask in advance

Bring your partner or another family member or friend for support

Ask for explanations of anything you don't understand

Make notes of what your midwife says

If your midwife can't help you, ask who you should contact instead

Ask if there are leaflets or websites with more information

